

Biography Korneel Evers

Korneel Evers is a Dutch actor and comedian, known for his improvisational skills. He formed the award winning cabaret trio BROKSTUKKEN together with Arjan Smit and Chris King Perryman until 2015. He plays one of the lead roles in the International Emmy Award winning kids movie RABARBER (2014) and the film THE HEINEKEN KIDNAPPING (2011) a true story about the most notorious kidnapping case in The Netherlands.

Korneel is born in Almelo where he lives until he is 8 years old. During his high school years Korneel gets his first taste in acting when he becomes part of the school's theatre group Titsing. When he's 15 Korneel starts playing in various rock bands such as Fairfight (guitarist) and The Guides (singer/guitarist). In 2004, Korneel graduated from the School of Arts in Utrecht and majored in Acting. During and after completing his studies Korneel plays with several theatre groups.

In 2005, Korneel reaches the finale of the prestigious Dutch Leids Cabaret Festival with the trio Brokstukken. Since then the trio has been touring theatres throughout the country, as well as playing many festivals. In 2015, after their show Heavy Balls, Korneel decided to stop and concentrate on a solo career as actor and comedian.

Korneel can be seen in various films and television series. He was a member of the cabaret improvisational TV show POOL GUESTS and played in several Dutch TV series, including the kids series MERRY CHRISTMAS and the award winning TROLLIE, as well as the Dutch drama series FATHERS AND MOTHERS, PENOZA, VAN GOD LOS, BLACK TULIP (season 1) AND FRESHMAN (season 2 and the movie). In addition, he can be seen in films as HET HART VAN HADIAH TROMP, HET MOOISTE WAT ER IS, HELLINGPROEF, STAATSGEVAARLIJK, A LETTER FOR THE KING en THE STRONGEST DUTCHMAN.

In 2016 he is back on stage with FC The Rebels a performance about soccer and he's also working on a book of the football players of FC The Rebels. He just wrapped shooting a new drama series directed by Erik de Bruyn and can now be seen in the Christmas movie ALL YOU NEED IS LOVE.
