

BRACHA VAN DOESBURGH | BIOGRAPHY

Bracha is one of the most sought-after leading ladies in the Netherlands and beyond. She starred in the British-Dutch film THE DOMINO EFFECT, played the lead in the Dutch romantic comedy hit HARTENSTRAAT and played Sophie in the popular German tv-movie VERLIEBT IN AMSTERDAM.

After graduating from the theatre academy in Amsterdam, Bracha joined the renowned Het Nationale Toneel theatre. She starred in THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING ERNEST, CLOSER and A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM. She was featured as Regan in Het Toneel Speelt's KING LEAR and enjoyed a comical role in the rock opera REN LENNY REN by famous Dutch musicians Thomas Acda and Paul de Munnik.

On the silver screen Bracha starred in a variety of films, among them HET SCHNITZELPARADIJS by Martin Koolhoven, the black comedy MOORDWIJVEN by Dick Maas, DE EETCLUB by Robert Jan Westdijk (after the popular thriller by Saskia Noort), the youth film DE GROETEN VAN MIKE! and, most recently in the hit comedies DORIS and ALL YOU NEED IF LOVE. Bracha is an accomplished comedienne.

She could be seen in various leading roles in tv-series including four seasons of NIEUWE BUREN (in England known as THE NEIGHBORS), BAGELS & BUBBELS and S1NGLE. She played Danny Cruijff in the mini-series JOHAN – LOGISCH IS ANDERS, about the life of Johan Cruijff.

In 2020, Bracha will revive her role as Fabie in the tv-series OOGAPPELS and will be featured in the German crime series DER AMSTERDAM KRIMI.
